

My expectations for my website is something that is quite simple and all, it will be easy to understand and the effects are neither plain nor overbearing. And above all, I hope that it meets the standard requirement of what is needed. That is what I think.